Steve,
I have been great having you in my math classes this year. Our battles in class will be always remembered.
See you in the future.

Steve,
You have been a great help

Steve,
You are a crazy, foolish, nerd and a computer in mathematics and overall a great guy. Remember all the wild times we had all through high school with King and the rest. I hope Sharon and you will live happily ever afterward and I wish you best of luck in your quest for the minister.
Love, Tony 8/6

Steve,
To a person who has enjoyed Tom O. as little as I have.
Best of luck in every thing
you do. Friends,

Steve
I have enjoyed knowing you and being in class if you go to college. Good luck and have a nice summer.

Dedication

This 1976 Bicentennial Edition of the CADMEA is humbly dedicated by the staff and the student body of Bristol, Tennessee High School to Mr. Hugh David who has served as our principal for the past few years. The memories of Mr. David will linger with the graduating class of 1976 and generations of past graduates.

Mr. David is one who by his very presence and influence has inspired us to do our very best and look onward and upward. For his untiring effort in his search for truth, and his unselfish interest we are forever grateful.

Steve,
Thanks for coming to Barry all those boring days. You're helped me pass the time a lot quicker. I was a real sweet boy myself. Yours a real Dabbie
Bernold

QUEEN OF HEARTS CONTESTANTS

The Queen of Hearts contest is sponsored every year by the Bristol Life Underwriters. Six contestants, three from Virginia High and three from Tennessee High, are chosen to run for the title.

Senior Candidate—Cheryl Jeter; Campaign Manager—Cathy Fenoglio.

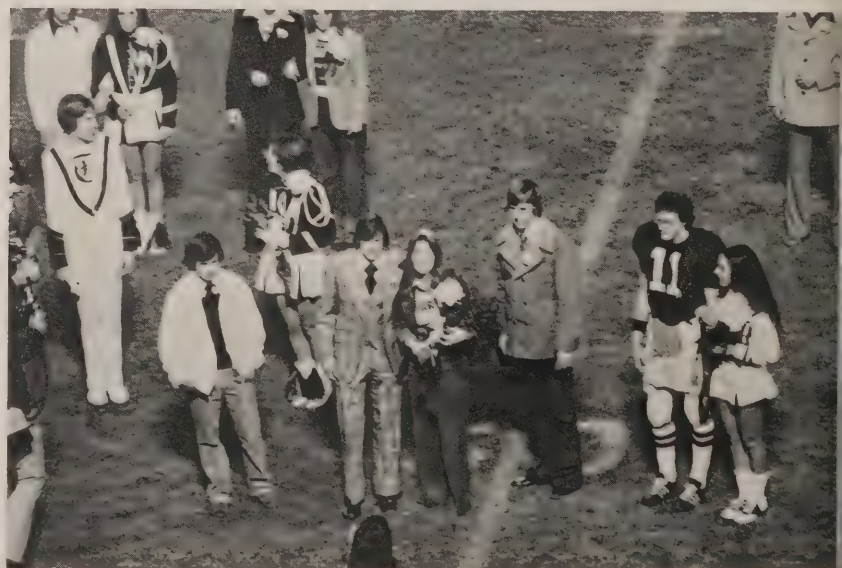

The girls are selected by a screening committee after signing up to run for the title. The winner is picked by penny votes. The money is obtained by road blocks and other such methods throughout town. All money collected goes to the Heart Fund.

1st Row, left to right—M. Morrell, V. Moretz, J. Nida, C. Preston, B. Clark, M. Austin, P. Adams, B. Jones; 2nd Row—P. Booth, J. Bynum, T. Bennett, J. Irwin, S. Daniels.

This year's V-T Queen contest consisted of 13 candidates, who were judged on the amount of money collected and by popular vote. The contest was sponsored by the Jr. Civitan Club. The finalists were named during the halftime ceremonies of the V-T game.

A victorious moment.

SPECIALTY AWARDS

The Specialty Corps of the T.H.S. Band won the First Place Trophy in Division A for their outstanding performance in the Bristol Band Festival. A fine job was done this year by Salli Brinkley, flag captain, and Sandy Hicks, rifle captain.

Karen Whitehead

BEREA AWARD GIVEN

Last year Karen Whitehead was chosen as T.H.S.'s Berea Student, an award given to rising seniors who meet the specific qualifications. Karen attended Berea College in June and chose to study Wildlife Biology from the 3 courses offered. In this course she attended lectures and gained field experience in and knowledge of conservation. Karen was one of almost 80 students from surrounding states.

We The People Seek . . .

Influence

IN MEMORIAM

Helen Faust

What was her essence? A Shakespearean sonnet might have captured it, but we fumble. Assuredly, her beauty brightened the school and pleased our eyes. Her grace of body and spirit moved us to wonder. Her gentle wit surprised us and tickled our funny bones. Her charm and quiet dignity compelled us to instinctive respect, as her gentleness soothed the abrasive edges of the day. But it was her love that mattered most. She was all that we could desire in a teacher.

We are grieved that she is gone, but we are enriched because she lived.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT GROWS IN NUMBER DURING
'75-'76 SCHOOL YEAR

We The People Seek . . .

Individuality

Pep sessions, football games, really close friends,
Basketball games, nine weeks tests, good times,
Rough times, wandering on the front lawn,
Baccalaureate, Class Night, and finally Graduation.

Baseball, track, wrestling, friendships so warm,
Teachers, classmates, rap sessions in the front hall;
Now college, or tech school, or marriage, or work,
Memories of high school, memories for life.

Now that the seniors will be leaving,
We wish the underclassmen good luck,
To uphold the fine school that we have.
Tennessee High School, we will never forget.

Below—"Is that any way to treat a substitute?"

Memories linger . . . we promise to make new ones . . .

Bigger and better . . . this is the year, our year . . . Junior Year.
Our insights change, responsibilities trickle in . . .

We are examples in the spotlight of admiring eyes. Snapshots:
Class Rings—symbols of our pride and good times . . . Junior Court . .
We won Spirit Stick . . . Talent Show . . . Prom . . . Class Night—

Those special things that mean so much to us.
Memories are what we make of them . . . Laughter, Tears, Responsibility,

Spirit, Disappointment, Innocent Foolishness . . .

Liking what's behind, yet looking ahead . . . living for now.
We've shared it all, and as a class we have become one—for sharing means together.

There, last 7 months have really meant something special to me. It's because you were in those 7 great months without you but I'll always have my & love for you + I'll never forget me with. I should consider my self very lucky to have a guy like you + I love + appreciate you. I'd prayed for a Christian boyfriends + I got more than I deserved nice to ~~me~~ know how much you mean to me. It is so close to the dad. I'm glad I got you & you live so know I could of gotten someone else who could I been on days but god sent you to me + I thank him for that.

I'll write to you when you go to college. I'll be a lot of girls at Lee, who will be pretty, sexy! + have great personalities but I hope you'll wait for me. Sure, it'll be hard but with some help we look can hang on until the end. No matter where you go on how long you stay, I'll still love you.

I want to thank you for all those good-times we've had + all the places we've been together.

We've really had a good time together. Thanks for taking me to all those singings + revivals + always remember "The Play Sound Singers" + how much we enjoyed them. Remember the first time I shouted? I was so excited. Remember a real blessing to me + I thank god for you. Remember you parents should be really thankful to have a great son as you. They should be very proud of you. You got me) Ha-Ha! Just kidding. (you gotta be, love. May god bless you & keep you 4-ever in his arms. May he bless you each day you go. May god never let you forget about me. I love you + always will yours 4-ever

Love ya
 Brian

Freshman!
The very word describes it all.
New people to meet, new things to do.
The excitement of a new routine.
Basketball, Football, pep rallies, pizza,
The teases of upperclassmen.
Plus Freedom we hardly imagined last year.
Yeah, last year.
Were we really that different,
Or are we just "growing up"?!
Today, we're looking ahead to tomorrow.
The year is short,
But the memories are long. . . and happy.

first time - D sure you a real sweet + cute
guy. D've enjoyed being with you. You have a great sense of humor + a slight temper. That very good. Be good + try to fight those girls off at Lee.
Love ya
Sharon

Steve,
Remember the prom at the Y. A.W. + the good time we had that night.
We walked up + down the streets just so people would look at us. We were the 1st people to show up to the prom + wrote you a letter. You'll have to come show you off to my prom pictures + I'll be saving it while you are at
